

I very much appreciate the quality programming that K-LOVE provides. K-LOVE gives the community news commentary that commercial stations don't air locally. The FM translators that are currently used broadcast, at no cost, events that are given in the community. The type of lifestyle that my family lives depends on the christian programming that these translators provide. The for profit stations I just don't tune into because of the lifestyles they try to bring into my home. Allan Holmes